Meet Your TableTop Farmer J'Don

One of the original TableTop farming participants, Ja'Don has always possessed something of a green thumb. Eager to continue learning after growing sunflowers in NorthPointe's outdoor garden, Ja'Don transitioned into the TableTop Farmer last year and says he's "learned a lot and it's been a lot of fun." Ja'Don enjoys the ritual of daily plant care, meticulously following each step to ensure the healthy growth of his greens.
